

history

The United Friendly Societies (UFS) Dispensaries have been providing benefits for members in Ballarat for more than 125 years. The dispensaries originally catered for members belonging to various Friendly Societies (Lodges). Today any person can join UFS Dispensaries and enjoy the associated benefits. UFS belongs to the members who elect a Board to run it for their benefit.

In 1959, a branch dispensary opened in Geelong Road (Ballarat East) and relocated to Bridge Street in 1976. Pharmacies followed at Wendouree (1973), Sebastopol (1980), Buninyong (1987) and Victoria St (1991). More recent additions have included our gift shop Cherub Cards & Gifts (1996), the Bacchus Marsh Pharmacy (1999), Mt Clear Pharmacy (2004), Beaufort Pharmacy with Skipton and Willaura Depots (2004), Ballan Pharmacy (2004), Melton Pharmacy (2005), Melton South Pharmacy (2007), our wellbeing centre Peace & Quiet (2004), Treloar's Coffee House (2008), UFS Medical Centre (2008) and Delacombe Pharmacy (2008).
